103.14 Director's Indemnity. The Company and the Subsidiaries (as applicable) shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of the Directors and the Subsidiaries' directors (an "Indemnitee") who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or Proceeding (in each case, only to the extent relating to the Company or the Subsidiaries), whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Director of the Company or a director of a Subsidiary (as the case may be), to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, against all expenses, costs and obligations (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, expert's fees and court costs) (the "Expenses"), damages, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of such Expenses, damages, judgments, fines, penalties, excise taxes or amounts paid in settlement) actually incurred by such Director or Subsidiary's director in connection with such action, suit or Proceeding save and except to the extent that such action, litigation or Proceeding is on account of fraud of such Indemnitee (together with the Expenses, the "Indemnifiable Amounts"). Provided that (a) to the extent that a relevant Subsidiary has insufficient resources to satisfy the Indemnifiable Amounts, the Company shall procure that such Subsidiary is put in funds out of the resources of the Company and other Subsidiaries such that it is able to do so, and (b) the obligation of the Company or the Subsidiary to indemnify an Indemnitee under this Article 103.14 (Director' Indemnity) shall not arise to the extent that the Indemnifiable Amounts are indemnified and reimbursed pursuant to the D&O Policy.

Further:

- (a) If so requested by Indemnitee, the Company and/or the Subsidiary will pay any and all Expenses incurred by an Indemnitee as Indemnifiable Amounts, either by (i) paying such Expenses on behalf of Indemnitee, or (ii) reimbursing Indemnitee for such Expenses.
- (b) If an Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of these Articles to indemnification by the Company or a Subsidiary for some or a portion of the Expenses or other Indemnifiable Amounts in respect of a claim but not, however, for the total amount thereof, the Company or the Subsidiary (as the case may be) shall indemnify Indemnitee for the portion thereof to which Indemnitee is entitled.
- (c) For purposes of these Articles, the termination of any claim, action, suit or Proceeding, by judgment, order, settlement (whether with or without court approval) or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not create a presumption that Indemnitee did not meet any particular standard of conduct or that a court has determined that indemnification is not permitted by Applicable Law.
- (d) The rights of the Indemnitee hereunder shall be in addition to any other rights that the Indemnitee may have under these Articles, the D&O Policy or otherwise, provided that the Indemnitee will not be entitled to be compensated more than once for the same claim pursuant to these several rights, unless the Indemnitee has not recovered the Expenses or other Indemnifiable Amounts in respect of such claim in full. would be afforded currently under the Articles or the articles of association of a Subsidiary, it is the intent of the Parties that Indemnitee shall enjoy by these Articles the greater benefits so afforded by such change.

- (e) If any deduction or withholding is required by Applicable Law from the Indemnifiable Amount payable under these Articles to an Indemnitee, or the Indemnitee is required to pay any Taxes on the Indemnifiable Amount receivable under these Articles, the Indemnifiable Amount shall be grossed up to include such additional amount as will, after such deduction or withholding has been made or after any amount of such Tax has been paid, leaves the Indemnitee with the full amount which would have been received by it had no such deduction or withholding been required to be made or no such amount of Taxes becoming payable or paid.
- (f) Each Indemnitee that is not a Party is expressly meant to be a third-party beneficiary of this Article 103.14 (Director' Indemnity).

103.15 Unless otherwise specified in writing by the Investor, the Investor Director or the Material Subsidiary Investor Director (as applicable), shall be a non-executive director on the respective board of directors of the Company or the Material Subsidiary (as applicable) and shall not be involved (or deemed or considered to be involved) in the day-to-day management or conduct of the Company or any Material Subsidiary. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles, any non-executive director on the respective board of directors of the Company or the Material Subsidiary (other than a director who is appointed as an executive Director with the express consent of the nominating Party), their respective alternate directors and Observer (including any observer appointed by the Investor on the ESG and CSR Committee) shall not be considered or designated as a "responsible officer", the "authorised officer", the "compliance officer", the "officer having knowledge", the "officer in charge", "an employer of the employees", "person-in-charge", "occupier of premises" or "officer who is in default" within the meaning of the Act and such other Applicable Law or "assessee in default" under Applicable Law, including any compliances under labour Law or environmental Laws, as non-executive directors do not have the power to and are not responsible for overall management, supervision, direction and control of the Company or any Material Subsidiary. The Company shall, and the Company shall procure that the Material Subsidiary(ies) shall, ensure that any and all filings made by the Company and the Material Subsidiary(ies) with any Governmental Authority(ies) with a reference to any non-executive director of the Company or a Material Subsidiary, clearly specify that such director is a non-executive director on the board of directors of the Company and/or the Material Subsidiary (as the case may be).

All Directors and Subsidiaries' directors shall act as fiduciaries of the Company and the Subsidiary (as applicable) and shall act in good faith in order to promote the objects of the Company and the Subsidiary (as applicable) and in the best interests of the Company and the Subsidiary (as applicable). Each Director and Subsidiary's director shall exercise his duties in compliance with the Act with due and reasonable care, skill and diligence and shall exercise independent judgment.

Such notice shall be accompanied by copies of any document(s) to be reviewed and discussed at such meeting. Notices may be provided by electronic mail.

104.3 Quorum for a Board Meeting. The quorum for a Board Meeting shall be as prescribed by the Act, provided that at least 1 (One) Founder Director, 1 (One) Independent Director and 1 (One) Investor Director nominated by the Investor pursuant to Article 103.1 (Appointment of Directors) above are present at the Board Meeting within half an hour from the start time of the Board Meeting ("Quorum"), unless otherwise consented to in writing by the Investor, the Independent Director(s) or the Founder Company (as the case may be). 104.4 Reconvened Board Meeting. In the absence of Quorum at a Board Meeting duly convened within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Board Meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place ("Reconvened Board Meeting"). A conflict of interest will not be deemed per se solely on the basis that a Shareholder or its Affiliates hold any equity interest in a Competitor, provided however that, the holding of (i) any directorship on the board of any Competitor, (ii) a contract of employment (including an engagement as an advisor, provided that it is current at the relevant time and remunerated) with any Competitor, or (iii) any equity interest in a Competitor, directly or indirectly, as a result of which such Director has any governance rights (being governance rights not generally available to all other shareholders) in respect of the relevant Competitor, shall be deemed to be conflict of interest with respect to such Director and the Board may require the nominating Shareholder to appoint a non-conflicted Director (as the case may be) in place of such conflicted Director. Notwithstanding a conflict of interest with a Director, the Company and the Subsidiaries shall only undertake a matter for which consent is required pursuant to Article 106 (Reserved Matters) in compliance with the provisions of Article 106 (Reserved Matters).

104.6 Resolution by Circulation. Subject to Applicable Law and Article 106 (Reserved Matters), a resolution by circulation shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Directors called and held, provided it has been approved in writing by the majority of Directors entitled to vote thereon in accordance with the provisions of these Articles. No resolution shall be deemed to have been duly passed by the Board by circulation or written consent, unless the resolution has been circulated in draft form, together with the agenda, and an explanatory statement, setting out in reasonable details the rationale for proposing the resolution, information and appropriate documents required to reach a decision, to all Directors at the address / email notified to the Company (whether in India or outside India) at least 7 (Seven) days in advance (unless the time period for such notice is reduced or waived in writing by a majority of the Directors which shall include the consent of 1 (One) Investor Director, at least 1 (One) Founder Director and at least 1 (One) Independent Director).

117.7 If, during the pendency of any arbitration proceedings arising under the Shareholders' Agreement and / or these Articles before an arbitral tribunal, any other dispute arises under the Shareholders' Agreement and / or these Articles and/or any of the other Transaction Documents ("Related Agreements") between the parties to the Related Agreements and if the issues involved in such subsequent dispute(s) are related to and/or connected with the dispute in the pending arbitration proceedings, such subsequent dispute(s) may, be referred either by the Claimant or the Respondent to the same arbitral tribunal which is seized of the earlier arbitration proceedings. On such reference, the subsequently referred dispute(s) shall be determined by the arbitral tribunal in accordance with the same rules of procedure as applicable to the pending arbitration proceedings. In the event there is a disagreement between the Parties on referring any subsequent dispute(s) to the same arbitral tribunal, the question as to whether the subsequent dispute(s) is/are related to and/or connected with the dispute in the pending arbitration proceedings shall be decided by the arbitral tribunal which is seized of the earlier arbitration proceedings.

117.8 The arbitral tribunal may consolidate the arbitration proceeding initiated under the Shareholders' Agreement, these Articles with any other arbitration proceeding arising out of or in connection with the Shareholders' Agreement, the Articles or any other Transaction Document, if it determines that: (a) there are issues of fact or Applicable Law common to the proceedings such that a consolidated proceeding would be more efficient than multiple separate proceedings, and (b) no Party would be prejudiced as a result of such consolidation through undue delay or otherwise. In the event of different rulings by different arbitral tribunal regarding this issue of whether multiple proceedings should be consolidated, the ruling of the arbitral tribunal which is seized of the earlier arbitration proceedings shall prevail.

117.9 Neither the existence of any Dispute nor the fact that any arbitration is pending hereunder shall relieve any of the Parties of their respective obligations under these Articles. The pendency of Dispute in any arbitration proceeding shall not affect the performance of the obligations of the relevant Parties under these Articles.

117.10 The provisions of this Article 117 (Dispute Resolution) shall be binding on, and for the benefit of, solely to the Parties to the Shareholders' Agreement and no other Person, including any Shareholder of the Company that is not a party to the Shareholders' Agreement.
